

FREEDOM'S SCHOOL

The Freedom school in our story was a very simple building... but was SO important! Color the school building you see here.

Draw a picture of a Lizzie and Paul walking to school.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of ten horizontal dashed lines, providing space for writing.

Tell an adult about your favorite part of our story this week and have them write it down here!

We're all helping to build freedom's

school.

build _____

freedom _____

school _____

Use the chalkboard to write your name!